MOUNT VERNON CREW

Mount Vernon High School Crew is beginning our eleventh season and has proven we have the drive, dedication, and talent to be competitive in scholastic rowing. This year our team has grown to over 50 athletes, with strong participation in our men's and women's novice programs. Head Coach, Ryan Ward leads our team for an eighth season with an invaluable volunteer coaching staff and a dedicated booster program.

To continue to introduce as many students as possible to the sport and run a program that can be competitive requires a basic rower fee, fundraising dollars, and committed volunteers. Neither state nor the Fairfax County School District provide any funding so fundraising and volunteers are vital to our program success.

Each rower is required to raise money to offset the cost to row. Each year the MV Crew Booster organization determines the rower fees based on the operating budget of the program. For the 2011-2012 season each student athlete must raise $150.00 as part of their fundraising requirement. We are asking for your support. Please consider making a tax deductible contribution to our program

WHAT IS CREW?

Crew is the sport of competitive rowing. The Mount Vernon Crew team row in eight and four person shells (boats) with each person using one oar (sweep).

CREW SCHEDULE

Crew is a spring water sport with a winter conditioning program on land open to all Mount Vernon High School students. The conditioning program is designed to build endurance and practice rowing technique. The official season begins at the end of February when the team practices on water Monday thru Friday. Regattas (races) are every Saturday. See Regatta schedule on back page.

WHERE DOES CREW TAKE PLACE?

Winter conditioning is held at the high school. The team rows on the water out of the Fort Belvoir Marina and practices on the Potomac River. The Mount Vernon Crew team participates in regattas at Sandy Run Regional Park; Baltimore, MD; Camden, NJ and Philadelphia, PA.
